

St. Stanislaus School
1883 – 2010

St. Stanislaus School has been nurturing the minds, hearts and spirits of students for 126 years. Through our new St. Stanislaus Alumni Association we hope to remember, reunite and honor the thousands of students who have attended our school. To join the association, please fill out this form and return it to St. Stanislaus School or church 6410 Route W, Jefferson City, MO 65101.

- Construction of the new St. Stanislaus Church was completed in 1883. It was then that the old log church was used for a school for the children of parish members.
- In 1898, a new school building was dedicated and Ursuline sisters taught the students in the new school.
- In 1962, the old school was razed and a new school was built.
- In 1990, a wooden playground was built in memory of Marcia Bisges.
- In 1996, a school addition was built, and in 2002 the second phase of expansion was completed giving us our current school building.
